Interests and hobbies

I am interested in a wide range of activities outside of work. I like watching and playing football, listening to a very varied music collection and visiting museums, galleries and sculpture parks. I read a lot, and while I am interested in gadgets and technology, I prefer to hold an actual book.

I like to cook and I am interested in food and drink, growing my own vegetables and keeping chickens. I have an interest in popular culture which in turn feeds and inspires my creative work. I think the variety of my musical, literary and cinematic tastes means that I can work on all types of creative briefs from those that are corporate to ones that maybe more off beat.
